

Video Production Contract

THIS AGREEMENT, made this ____ day of _____ (month), ____ (year), between _____, (hereinafter "CLIENT"),

and

GUARDING LIGHT MEDIA (hereinafter "GLM").

To produce _____(hereinafter "PRODUCTION").

We will always do our best to fulfill your needs and meet your goals, but sometimes it is best to have a few simple things written down so that we both know what is what, who should do what and what happens if things go wrong. In this contract you won't find complicated legal terms or large passages of unreadable text. We have no desire to trick you into signing something that you might later regret. We do want what's best for the safety of both parties, now and in the future.

CLIENT is hiring GLM to produce the items on the previous page (Quote) for the estimated total price as outlined in our previous correspondence.

What do both parties agree to do?

As our customer, you have the power and ability to enter into this contract on behalf of your company or organization. You agree to provide us with everything that we need to complete the project including text, images and other information as and when we need it, and in the format that we ask for. You agree to review our work, provide feedback and sign-off approval in a timely manner too. Deadlines work two ways and you will also be bound by any dates that we set together. You also agree to stick to the payment schedule set out at the end of this contract.

We have the experience and ability to perform the services you need from us and we will carry them out in a professional and timely manner. Along the way we will endeavor to meet all the deadlines set but we can't be responsible for a missed launch date or a deadline if you have been late in supplying materials or have not approved or signed off our work on-time at any stage. Changes and revisions

We know from plenty of experience that hourly contracts are rarely beneficial to you, as they often limit you (because of increasing price) to your first idea about how something should look, or how it might work. We don't want to limit either your options or your opportunities to change your mind. If you do want to change your mind that won't be a problem, you will be charged the rate set out in the estimate we gave you. Along the way we might ask you to put requests in writing so we can keep track of changes.

Technical support

If you have any problems implementing the video to its final destination we can provide technical advice and assistance at our hourly rate of $50 per hour. (Unless otherwise stated in the quote) If your video was intended to be broadcasted on television and you are having trouble with the network accepting or receiving your video we will work with you and or the network at our standard hourly rate of $50 until the video is delivered (Unless otherwise stated in the quote.) The hourly rate will not be waived due to the following issues: wrong compression format given to GLM or incorrect or faulty information regarding the broadcast station delivery specs. ALL BROADCAST STATION DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS MUST BE SENT TO GLM IN WRITTEN FORM. This is to protect the CLIENT and to assure GLM had the correct information before we start filming. Any minor updates the PRODUCTION after completion will be billed at a rate of $50 per hour unless we provide you with a specific quote regarding any changes.
